

United States Government

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD
1099 14th STREET NW
WASHINGTON DC 20570

Re: Communications Workers of America and Communications Workers of America, Local 4309 (AT&T Teleholdings, Inc., d/b/a AT&T Midwest and the Ohio Bell Telephone Company – Employer)
Case 08-CB-010487

ORDER

The Respondents' Motion to Strike the Acting General Counsel's Opposition to Respondents' Motions to Reopen or Supplement the Record and Receive Further Evidence is denied. Whether a filing is submitted "promptly" is decided on a case-by-case basis, taking into account all relevant circumstances. In the circumstances of this case, the Board has not yet acted on the Respondents' Motions to Reopen or Supplement the Record and Receive Further Evidence. Accordingly, the Acting General Counsel's opposition to the Respondents' motions has been accepted and transmitted to the Board for consideration.<sup>1</sup>

By direction of the Board:<sup>2</sup>

Dated, Washington, D.C., February 26, 2013.

Farah Z. Qureshi
Associate Executive Secretary

---

<sup>1</sup> Contrary to the Respondents, only specific due dates can be extended. As noted, the due date for a document that should be filed promptly may vary from case to case based on the circumstances.

<sup>2</sup> Chairman Pearce is recused and did not participate in the consideration of this motion.